FIVE CENTS

—WARTIME EXPERIENCES—

Disaster Areas Being Dug Out By 'Greatest Bulldozer Operation'

Efforts Under Way To Supply 4 Towns With Coal; Roads Cleared To 1,600 Nebraska Ranchers In 40-County Area

Efforts to lift the snowblockade in winter-weary Nebraska, Wyoming and South Dakota Thursday has mushroomed into the "greatest bulldozer operation ever organized."

This is as near a wartime operation as we can expect in peacetime, Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, director of the disaster area effort for the Fifth Army, reported.

Half Million More Granted Storm Areas

Bill Passed Unanimously By Congress

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress voted another $500,000 today for the job of digging the west out of the snow.

The senate unanimously passed the appropriation immediately after receiving it from the house. In the house it had gone through only minutes earlier, 123 to 0 on a standing vote.

Second Appropriation. It was the second half million appropriated for the blizzard-battered west and midwest.

The bill shot through the house with republicans and democrats joining in words of sympathy for the stricken areas.

Last week congress appropriated $500,000 for the relief program in 10 western and northwestern states hard hit by recent snowstorms and blizzards. Previously the president had made $300,000 available from his emergency fund.

Fifth Army Taking Over Relief Work

... NO LET UP IN OPERATIONS

The Fifth army reported in Omaha Thursday that it will take over the operation of all snow relief equipment in Nebraska except for regular highway department equipment by tonight.

The move came as Governor Val Peterson advised Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, director of the Fifth army work in this area, that state disaster funds had run out and the Fifth army should take over.

"The bulldozers will keep right on working," both the governor and the general emphasized.

With the state's $500,000 emergency appropriation and the $150,000 allocated to Nebraska by the Federal Works Administration exhausted, the governor said:

"We'll worry about who is to pay for it later."

"If we can't get the bulldozers transferred we will simply have to go before the legislature and ask for more money, the governor told his press conference today."

He said that the formal change over from state to army control in individual cases might take considerable time because the equipment would be working under the control of the National Guard. Although most of the Guard units will remain in the field temporarily, and drivers of the cats will remain the same, the orders for operational work will now come from the Fifth army.

However, the state highway department will continue to be in charge of clearing the main highways in the state. The "bulldozer army" mainly will be used to push open routes to isolated ranchers, secondary roads, and all emergency cases.

Mayor Clarence Miles Thursday told reporters he will have a preliminary report for the council Monday on the city's acquiring a transportation adviser. Miles wants a transportation expert to survey city bus lines and tell the council what is right and wrong with city service. The council last Monday authorized the mayor to find an expert is available and what his services might cost.

The mayor talked to city traffic advisor George Barton by phone and got recommendations for men to fill the job.

If the council authorizes him to go ahead and hire a man, the mayor hopes to have the preliminary steps out of the way so the adviser can begin his work here in two or three weeks.

Mayor Miles feels the city needs expert advice on what service can reasonably be expected here, and also needs a qualified witness should the issue go before the State Railway commission.

'Bulldozer Army' To Aid State Road Crews If New Blizzard Comes

OMAHA—(AP)—A disaster plan within a disaster plan has been worked out by Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick's operations snowboard.

The subordinate plan sets up what shall be done if or when a new snowstorm or blizzard re-blocks roads in the disaster areas of Wyoming, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Under the plan, the bulldozers and other equipment will be pulled off the side roads and ranch roads and thrown first into the battle to re-open main highways, in co-operation with state highway department efforts. Lesser and secondary roads will come later as the re-opening job proceeds.

Hanna In Vain Fight To Lift Bill

Solons Uphold Action Of Ag Committee On Oleo Measure

Sen. Don Hanna, sandhills rancher from Valentine, led a last ditch fight on his proposal to remove the requirement that state institutions must serve butter rather than margarine to state wards. On a record vote in the legislature Thursday, when he attempted to raise the bill killed by the agriculture committee, he lost by a vote of 19 ayes and 21 nays.

In his defense of his bill, Sen. Hanna tied it in with his measure now being held by the education committee which would provide a $500,000 agricultural school at Valentine. Membership of the education and agriculture committees are the same with separate chairmen.

'Big Shot and Little Shot.' Referring to the committee members as "stalwart statesmen," Sen. Hanna launched into blistering attack because they had not reported to general file his school bill. The only opposition to his proposal came from two sources, he said, "Big Shot and Little Shot."

These he identified as Chancellor R. G. Gustavson of the University of Nebraska, who called attention to the proposed added expense to the state, and Wayne O. Reed, state superintendent.

"They do not know there is any Nebraska west of Broken Bow," Hanna thundered. "Had the butter requirement not been in the law, the board of control would have been able to save enough to build two schools such as I ask at Valentine."

He called attention to the fact that the institution purchases are only two-tenths of 1 per cent of Nebraska's butter production and that the added cost to the state has been $67,000 yearly. He recited testimony of O. R. Rasmussen, representing the dairy industry, against the bill and said that Charles Marshall, president of the Farm Bureau, who also testified was only a "ditto."

Principle Involved. Sen. John Callan, chairman of the budget committee, said that a principle was involved and opposed having the legislature tell the operating agencies of the state how they should administer their duties. He cited board estimates that they could save $110,000 a biennium. If the restriction was removed, and said that as

BAN ON MASS EVICTIONS IS PLANNED

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress may write a ban against mass eviction of tenants into its new rent control bill, Chairman Spence (D-Ky) of the house banking committee, said today.

Both landlords and tenants will have plenty of chance to testify, he said, when the committee starts hearings Monday on the administration bill to extend strengthened rent controls for two years.

Woman Is Fatally Injured In Fall

MACY, Neb.—(AP)—Funeral services were held today for Nebraska's 23rd victim, Mrs. Frances Clay Grant Mitchell.

Mrs. Mitchell, 65, a member of the Omaha Indian tribe, left her home on an errand during the blizzard last Thursday. She apparently fell on the ice and was not discovered until several hours later.

She was given emergency treatment and two days later, when highway 73 finally was opened, she was taken to the Winnebago hospital where she died Sunday.

Late Report On State Highways

The state safety patrol Thursday reported these highways in northeast Nebraska still closed by snows:

No. 84, east from junction with 81.

No. 59, east from Creighton.

NAVY'S POWER IS CUT

300,000 Men, 72 Ships Must Be Pared From Sea Force; Lack Of Funds

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The navy said today it will have to lay up 72 ships, including 15 top-line fighting vessels, and cut its strength by 30,000 men to meet President Truman's 1950 budget.

Secretary of the Navy Sullivan said three Essex-class carriers, nine light cruisers and three anti-aircraft cruisers have been picked for inactivation.

In a letter to the chairmen of the senate and house armed services and appropriation committees, Sullivan said the navy plans to start reduction at once.

Air Force Cut. In addition to the cuts in ships and men, Sullivan said the navy must reduce its air strength by a small percentage—some 400 planes out of more than 8,000—and shut down a dozen small air stations.

And he said "a general reduction in the scale of activity at naval shore establishments supporting the fleet, including employment levels at naval shipyards," will be necessary.

Actually, the number of fighting ships in service will increase during 1949-50 by 15 rather than go down, Sullivan revealed at a later point in his letter. Thirty three vessels will come from new construction and withdrawals from the reserve fleet.

More Light Ships. Sullivan said 24 destroyer types will be added to the active fleet, one light carrier, one Essex-class carrier, one heavy cruiser, one light cruiser and two submarines.

The net effect as far as fighting power is concerned apparently will be a shift of emphasis to lighter vessels such as destroyers, adopted to anti-submarine work. Most of the combat ships headed for back chutes are heavy attack craft.

He listed the following ships for the mothball fleet:

The destroyers Princeton, Antietam, and Tarawa; the light cruisers Providence, Little Rock, Huntington, Portsmouth, Dayton, Astoria, Topeka, Duluth, and Atlanta; and the anti-aircraft cruisers Fresno, Oakland and Tucson.

He said the heavy attack ship Dayton and Duluth already have been ordered to the reserve fleet.

More Snow Is Seen For East

... Mercury To Skid

More snow was in prospect for eastern Nebraska.

Forecasters said Thursday snow was expected in the east and south central portions of the state tonight and in the east Friday.

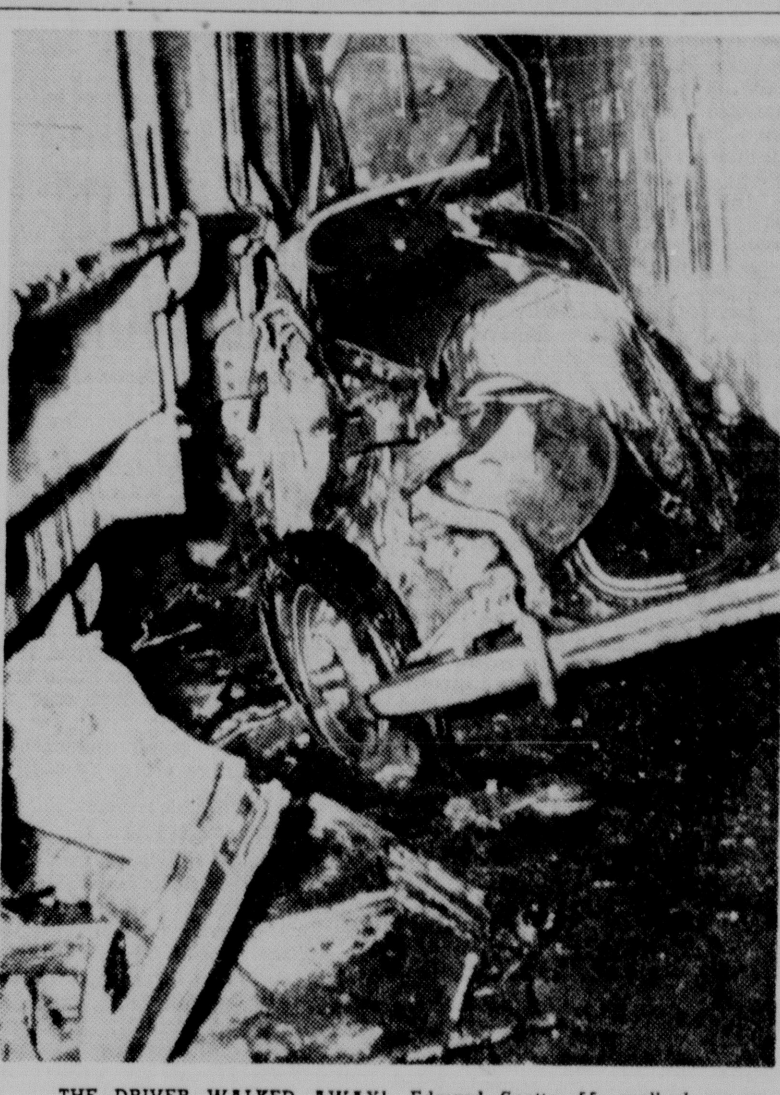

Snowfall in the Lincoln area will be light, the weather bureau said.

Lows of 10 below in the northwest to 10 above in the southeast were predicted for tonight.

Highs tomorrow are expected to range from 10 to 20 above.

'Clear In West. At noon today skies were clear at Chadron and Scottsbluff, cloudy at North Platte and overcast at Grand Island. At Topeka, Kas., a light rain was falling.

During the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. Grand Island, Lincoln and North Platte all reported .01 of an inch of precipitation. A light snow was reported at McCook this morning.

Farmers Getting Supplies Via Sled In O'Neill Area

O'NEILL, Neb.—(INS)—Huge plank sleds were being used today to rush supplies of coal and oil to snowbound farmers who were reported burning furniture and farm equipment to keep warm.

Harold Weier, a postal clerk, O'Neill, said today a large number of sleds, built of rough lumber and plank runners, are being loaded with fuel and provisions. Each is approximately 24 feet long and eight feet wide and carries more than a thousand pounds of supplies. Tractors and weasels are pulling the sleds to homes where snowbound residents have signalled their needs to airplane pilots.

The farmers were told by radio broadcasts how to lay panel codes of dark materials in the snow so pilots can tell what emergency aid is needed and relay the information to ground crews.

Highway Again Closed.

The town of 2,500 persons took on the appearance of a wartime command post rather than a farm community as bulldozers, ambulances, weasels and other army equipment rumbled through the streets today.

Weier said:

"A lot of material is going out, but there is a lot more to go. Supplies are getting into town now on roads opened by the bulldozers crews. But highway 281, which was opened yesterday, is reported closed again north of town. A little snow fell yesterday and it doesn't take much wind and snow to close these roads again.

Out in the country areas the wind is blowing nearly all of the time and snow is drifting constantly."

Treatment Of Indians Hit Governor Protests To Secretary Krug

Governor Val Peterson in a telegram to Secretary of Interior Krug Thursday protested against what he termed "the disgraceful way" in which stranded Indian farm workers are being treated in the storm-stricken areas.

The governor, who laid the blame at the federal government's door, stated:

"Despite federal grants to relieve the situation, I have been reliably informed that a family of nine, for example, had been allowed only $18 for food for a month."

Meanwhile, C. H. Powers, superintendent of the Pine Ridge reservation, said that relief was granted on a basis of from $15 to $25 per family per month for food, and that grants could not be increased until additional funds are made available.

First Christian 80th Anniversary Dinner Friday

The First Christian church will celebrate its 80th anniversary at a dinner Friday, 6:30 p. m., in the church's dinner hall, Rev. Lowell C. Bryant announced today.

Postponed from January 28 because of bad weather conditions, the ceremony will observe the 1869 founding of the Lincoln congregation.

L. C. Oberlies, Tacoma, Wash., former Lincoln resident and member of the Nebraska legislature, who was a member of the First Christian church, will be guest speaker.

Court Injunctions Dispute Waxes Hot

... Senate Demos And Republicans Mix At Hearing

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Sen. Morse (R-Ore) declared in a tumultuous senate labor committee session today that the administration labor bill "hasn't a ghost of a chance" as it is now written.

Morse said "a lot of compromises must be made," and added:

"Labor is not going to write this ticket. It is going to be written by the counting of noses in the senate. The voters are not there today to pass this bill."

For more than two hours the senators had engaged in hot argument over the measure.

Across the capitol, meantime, a resolution to repeal the Taft-Hartley law and reinstate the old Wagner labor relations act without any changes was approved, 7 to 5, by a house labor subcommittee.

Vote Follows Party Lines. Rep. Kelley (D-Pa.), subcommittee chairman, said it will be considered by the full committee some time next week. The subcommittee vote was on straight party lines.

The most feasible approach in repealing the Taft-Hartley law is to incorporate an outright repeal bill with a provision restoring the Wagner act in one bill, and then a subsequent measure using the old Wagner act as the basic law for amendments.

This is the so-called "two package" plan that labor leaders have demanded. The administration's measure is the "one package" approach. It would repeal the Taft-Hartley act and make changes in the old Wagner act in one piece of legislation.

Agreement Renewed. The senate committee fell into argument immediately after meeting.

The dispute centered on whether the government could get court injunctions to block "national emergency" strikes if the Taft-Hartley law's provision for such orders is repealed.

Attorney General Tom Clark informed the committee last night that he believes the government could obtain court orders "in appropriate circumstances" regardless of whether there was specific legal authority. Clark's opinion was in a letter to committee Chairman Elbert Thomas (D-Utah).

Senator Donnell (R-Mo) and other republican members challenged Clark's statement at a public hearing last night.

Donnell Kicks Off. With Secretary of Labor Tobin on the witness stand, Donnell kicked off the ball again today.

Donnell charged that the administration is "trying to get the United States that the government's right to obtain an injunction to prevent critical services from being abandoned by Congress."

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) tried three times to interrupt Mr. Donnell, refused to yield. He said he wanted to "preserve the constitutionality of his argument."

Then Sen. Wiley (D-Wa) demanded: "Are we going to let this degenerate into a series of interruptions?"

Chairman Thomas (D-Utah) said: "The time to find out whether it is the intention of the administration to permit only the arguments they want here."

Chairman Thomas told Donnell to proceed.

The mammoth craft made a jet-assisted takeoff from Moffett field, south of here, at 8:55 a. m. PST. (10:55 a. m. CST).

Aboard were 74 passengers and a crew of 16, commanded by Comdr. William Collins.

The craft's capacity is 180 passengers and it is capable of flying from San Francisco to London non-stop.

The Lockheed plane is the first of at least two to be commissioned by the navy. It carried newspaper and radio men on the flight to Washington.

American Is Expelled By Hungarians

For Suspected Spying; U. S. Observer Banned From Cardinal's Trial

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The communist government of Hungary has expelled an American diplomat on suspicion of spying, the state department reported today. The department said it knew of no basis for the charges.

Stephen A. Kozak, second secretary of the legation at Budapest and vice consul, was ordered out of the country on 48 hours notice Jan. 29, the department was advised by the U. S. embassy there. The unofficial reports of the action came yesterday from Vienna.

A note handed to Seldon Chapin, the U. S. minister, by the Hungarian government on that date said Kozak was suspected of "intelligence activities." He left promptly for Vienna where he has been assigned temporarily to the U. S. legation for Austria, until completion of the trial in Hungary of Cardinal Josef Mindszenty.

The cardinal is on trial on charges he plotted against the communist regime. The legation has been refused a request to permit an official American observer to attend the Mindszenty trial, a Budapest dispatch said.

Living Costs, Minimum Pay Tie Supported

Plan Would Change Wage As Prices Shift

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A plan to tie the national minimum wage to living costs won some support today in the house labor committee.

Suggested to the committee by Rep. Hays (D-Ark), the plan would put the minimum wage on an economic elevator and move it up and down as the cost of living shifted.

Hays testified against an administration bill to raise the minimum at once from 40 cents an hour to 75. The measure also would provide for moving it on up to $1 in some industries.

Rep. McConnell (R-Pa), ranking minority member of the committee, welcomed Hays' suggestion. He has been advocating a plan like it for several years.

10 Points Lower Than Month Ago

Hay Increases Cited In Report
Continuing its steady drop which began last July, the state's farm price index for mid-January stood at 278, 10 points lower than mid-December, the state-federal bureau of agricultural statistics reported Thursday.

The figure compares with 356 recorded last July and the all-time high of 360 attained in January, 1948.

"The drop in the mid-January index was caused by lower prices for livestock and for some grain crops," the bureau commented. "Although the index has declined substantially, it is higher than any recorded during the World War I period."

The all-crop index dropped one point during the month from 225 in mid-December to 224 on January 15. Corn was unchanged at $1.22 per bushel, while potatoes, dry beans and grain sorghums were higher.

Hay prices showed substantial increases as a result of heavy livestock feed requirements during the recent blizzards, and hay prices have gone much higher since mid-month.

Wheat declined three cents per bushel to $2.02 for mid-January, oats was off one cent at 72 cents, barley off three cents at $1.05 and rye was off eight cents at $1.32 per bushel.

Livestock Down 14 Points.
Average prices received by farmers for livestock and livestock products declined 14 points during the month. The mid-January index of 298 compares with 363 recorded a year earlier and the all-time high of 392 recorded July 15, 1948. All meat animal prices were lower except sheep.

Hogs were off $1.50 per cwt. to $19.40, cattle off 50 cents to $20.50, calves off 50 cents to $22.50 and lambs were off 20 cents at $22.50 per cwt. Sheep increased from $8.50 to $9.00 per cwt. for the month ending January 15. Milk cows increased $4.00 per head, averaging $195 for mid-January. Butterfat was unchanged at 61 cents per pound, while wholesale milk declined 10 cents to $4.20 per cwt. Chickens showed a one cent increase, while eggs were off nearly seven cents, averaging 36.2 cents per dozen.

The bureau said the national index of prices paid farmers was unchanged January 15, at 248.

Ex-Nebraskan Unable To End Speech At Landlord Meeting

His Reference To Admiration For Joe Stalin Throws Gathering Into Temporary Disorder

FORT WORTH, Tex.—(AP)—A man described himself as a native of Hastings, Neb., appeared before a meeting of Fort Worth landlords, but didn't get to finish his speech.

The landlords had met to discuss eviction notices Tuesday night. The principal speaker, introduced as Paul Johnson, represented the Tulsa Property Owners association which started the landlord strike last week.

Escorted From Hall.
He hadn't been speaking many minutes when several of the landlords sponsoring the meeting objected to his remarks. Shortly afterward he was escorted from the hall.

The Star-Telegram, which had two reporters present at last night's meeting, said the speech was interrupted when Johnson stated:

"I like the Russians. In Hastings, Neb., where I was born, there were no Negroes and the Russians washed my clothes. I admire Joe Stalin. If he gives you his word, he will keep it."

At this point, an ex-serviceman who served three years in the

Married Women Praised For Help In Relieving Teacher Shortage

OMAHA—(AP)—Delegates who were attending a regional conference on teacher education and professional standards here today had agreed that public education's ace-in-the-hole in the teacher shortage is the married woman who returns to the profession.

O. C. Schwiering, dean of the University of Wyoming's college of education, said if it weren't for married persons, "schools in Wyoming would not have been able to keep open."

Dr. Ralph McDonald, executive secretary of the national commission on teacher education and professional standards, told the meeting yesterday:

"At this time, the Richest source for recruitment of qualified elementary teachers is in the tens of thousands of professionally prepared teachers who have quit schools."

Nebraska has "poor standards" for its elementary school teachers, Dr. McDonald said yesterday.

Recommend Salary Boost.
In an interview he asserted "practically any high school student in the state can take a normal training course for elementary teaching. The elementary teacher turnover in Nebraska is among the highest in the nation."

On the other hand, he said "Omaha has high standards." "Low salaries mean poor teachers, short supply and heavy turnover," Dr. McDonald said. "These perpetuate low standards and the vicious circle starts over again."

He declared grade school boys and girls will continue to have large numbers of poorly qualified

Mercy Trip Fatal To 2

Plane Crashes Into Farm Home

ALLIANCE, Neb.—(AP)—A mercy mission in Nebraska's blizzard area cost the lives of two civilian airmen late yesterday.

While dropping materials to be used for distress signals, their little plane struck a telephone wire and crashed into a farm house northwest of Alliance.

The dead were John Huff, 32, a fur buyer, and William O'Brien, 43, an insurance man, both of Alliance.

Left Regular Jobs.
Like many others flying mercy missions from sunup to sundown, they had deserted their regular jobs while they flew rescue and search missions.

Their deaths brought to three the number of persons killed in rescue and relief efforts. Earlier, a Kearney railroad worker died in a snowplow accident.

HER SECRET STAR

By Bennie C. Hall

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 21.
It was autumn. The flowers, except for the hardy chrysanthemums, had been ruined by the frost. The green trees had turned to crimson and gold.

There had been few changes in Carrollton. Now that the season of gaiety was over, it had settled down to its usual routine, with only an occasional fire, a church supper or a rummage sale to break the monotony. There had, in fact, been very little to talk about since the tragedy of Gertrude Warren.

The townspeople, with characteristic loyalty, had not talked a great deal about that dreadful incident, either, except to regret Gertrude's passing and to sympathize with her parents. They were not above gossip, but they talked about small things, never about anything so tragic as this.

Moreover, they would miss the laughing blonde child whom they had known since babyhood. True, they had worried about her reckless behavior at times, but—well, they would miss that too. In a way, Gertrude Warren was one of their own.

Nor did the townspeople censure Jack Barnes too much. Born and brought up in Carrollton, Jack was one of their own too. They had worried about him. They had criticized him, but always for his own good. And Jack had reformed. The truck driver who witnessed the accident was positive that he had been driving at a snail's pace when the accident occurred.

Meanwhile the Warrens were making a brave pretense of carrying on, although it was obviously a mockery. Their hearts weren't in it. Every day David would go to the postoffice and go through all the motions of sorting the mail, distributing it, and performing the various duties in line with his job.

Minniebelle tried to busy herself in her club work, a feat that was well nigh impossible when there was no work to be done. The City Improvement club had disbanded for the winter months and the other clubs were at a standstill, the only active one being the Woman's Political League.

There was a movement on foot to make David Warren Carrollton's next mayor—even if he was a democrat.

However, David didn't want to be mayor. He just wanted to go on being postmaster where he was too busy to think much. There would be plenty of time for thinking when he retired and had nothing to do but fish. But, if Minniebelle wanted him to be mayor, he would have to go through with it. Anything to make Minniebelle happy, he reasoned.

Since the accident Betty had spent a lot of time with Jack Barnes, because he seemed to need her even more than her uncle and aunt did. Just as Uncle Dave had said, they had each other and there were times when she felt quite superfluous.

It hadn't been easy—cheering Jack up. At first he insisted upon blaming himself for the accident which had taken Gertrude's life, despite proof to the contrary. "I was trying to save Gertie, and I killed her," was his summation.

Acts AT ONCE to relieve NIGHT CROUPY COUGHING (CAUSED BY COLDS)

For years thousands of Doctors prescribed PERTUSSIN. It acts at once not only to relieve coughing due to colds but also 'loosens up' phlegm and makes it easier to raise. PERTUSSIN is safe for both old and young. Pleasant tasting. →PERTUSSIN←

"But you didn't Jack," Betty protested. "It was an accident. Everybody knows it was an accident. Even the truck driver said you were driving very slowly and carefully. He ought to know, too. He was right there and saw the whole thing."

They had gone over this conversation so many times that Betty had lost count of them before Jack finally became reconciled.

His injuries, too, were more serious than first suspected. For a time it appeared that he might never walk again. But now, less than two months later, he was able to not only walk, he was able to drive a car. On several occasions he had borrowed his father's car and taken Betty for short drives.

She was a little nervous the first time, but for no good reason. She was grateful to discover that Jack had acquired a new respect for traffic laws. Although the accident had not been due to his habitual fast driving, she hoped he would continue to go slowly. Perhaps her own nerves were on edge and needed discipline.

Today he had borrowed his father's car again and they were going on their first long drive since the memorable trip to Provincetown. They would be driving at night, too, on the return trip, for the days were getting shorter now that it was fall. They were going into Boston for a matinee and dinner.

The large, attractive restaurant boasted no historical distinctions and therefore had to depend upon good food and perfect service as a drawing card. They sat at a secluded table where the soft lights gave Betty's skin an alabaster quality and made her eyes shine like polished emeralds.

When they had finished the main course of delicious but very smelly grilled shrimps and were waiting for dessert he surprised her by saying:

out. She tried to make her reply noncommittal. "I wouldn't know about that. Who's getting married anyhow? Besides Ellen and Lloyd, of course. And they aren't getting married till spring."

Brownies, Girl Scouts Hold Annual Party

FATHER-DAUGHTER NIGHT

More than 300 Girl Scouts and Brownies Scouts with their "dads" entered into the animated spirit of the third annual father-daughter fun party Wednesday night at the Cornhusker hotel ballroom.

The ballroom was alive with the green berets and yellow neckerchiefs of the intermediate Scouts and the light tan uniforms of the younger Brownies throughout the program presented by girls and magician John Carson.

The Scouts reaffirmed their pledge of service when Mary Lindefelder, Brownie Scout of Randolph school, led the Brownies in their promise. Jean Jensen, intermediate Girl Scout from First Christian church, led the intermediate group.

With Kay Deppen of the Irving school troop as mistress of ceremonies, 11 girls, each representing one of the program fields in Girl Scouting, told of the individual activities:

Agriculture—Mary Elizabeth Nevels, Urban League troop.

Arts and Crafts—Carole Fisher, Randolph school troop.

Community Life—Breanna Johnson, Hurley school troop.

Health and Safety—Joyce Brigham, Sheridan school troop.

Home-making—Linda Long, Prescott school troop.

International Friendship—Deloise Workman, Holmes school troop.

Literature and Dramatics—Marilyn Johnson, Yankin Hill school troop.

Music and Dancing—Diane Dennis, Elliott school troop.

Nature—Anita Synover, Lakeview school troop.

Out-of-Door—Alveta Strickland, Hawthorn school troop.

Sports and Games—Deanna Peterson, Saratoga school troop.

Lewis Represents Dads.

Representing the dads was R. O. Lewis, father of a Brownie scout, an intermediate scout, and husband of a leader. He told the group why he wanted his daughters to be Girls Scouts.

Assisting in the planning of the program were Mrs. Irvin Rosewell, Mrs. A. E. Imes, Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Emrys Jones, Mrs. Fred Lindefelder, and Mrs. Oscar Osterlund.

Mrs. Anna B. Heimer Passes Away At 81

Mrs. Anna Burge Heimer, 81, 4142 Sheridan, a Lincoln resident since 1920, died Wednesday night at a local hospital.

Born June 26, 1867, in Sullivan, Ind., Mrs. Heimer moved to Gordon, Neb., in 1886. She was a member of College View Community church and the widow of George Heimer, retired stockman and farmer, who died June 4, 1939.

Surviving is one daughter, Octavia Heimer, Lincoln.

Nursing Home Group Hears Dr. H. H. Johnson

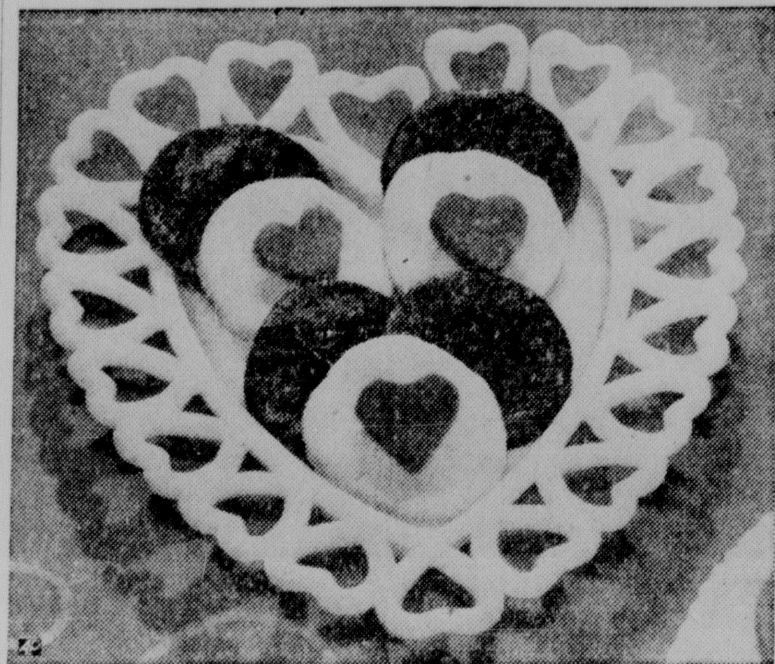

Members of the Lincoln Nursing Home Operators association heard Dr. H. H. Johnson discuss "Nursing Homes" at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA.

Mrs. Daisy Alfrey of the association's legislative committee urged all nursing home operators to attend the Thursday session of the state legislature when a bill to license nursing homes is scheduled for committee hearing.

Mrs. Winifred McCall and Miss Audrey Birk were guests at the meeting.

Add a little scraped onion to cooked peas along with butter or margarine, salt and pepper, before serving.

Sweets To The Sweet On Valentine's Day

If your boys and girls have never made edible valentines they'll get a big thrill out of concocting heart-shaped candy or cookies. Then they can package the sweets attractively and give them away, or they can be used for a Valentine party. If the youngsters want to give the whole class a treat they might take a box to school.

The following recipe for candy is particularly suitable for young hands because it takes no cooking and can be made in three flavors. Here's how it's done:

Fondant Valentines.

Ingredients: 6 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 6 tablespoons melted vitaminized margarine, 6 tablespoons evaporated milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract, 2 tablespoons lemon rind, red food coloring, 1/2 teaspoon almond flavoring, 1/3 cup shredded coconut, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate (melted), 1/2 teaspoon peppermint flavoring.

Method: Add sugar gradually to melted margarine, stirring until all the sugar is melted. Add evaporated milk and salt and mix thoroughly. Divide the fondant into thirds. For Lemon Patties add 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract and 2 tablespoons lemon rind to one-third of the fondant. For Coconut Delights add a few drops of red food coloring, 1/2 teaspoon almond flavoring and 2 tablespoons shredded coconut to another third of the fondant. When fondant has been cut into shapes sprinkle remaining coconut over the top. For Chocolate Mints add 2 squares unsweetened melted chocolate and 1/2 teaspoon peppermint flavoring to the last third of the fondant. Mix each of the three portions well. Knead each mixture separately on bread board sprinkled with confectioners' sugar until smooth and glossy. Roll or press into rectangles about 1/4-inch thick. Cut into hearts with various size cookie cutters. Makes 1 1/2 pounds candy.

Here are some tips for Valentine cookie making: Use your favorite sugar cookie recipe and roll thin, then cut in heart shapes. Frost with pink icing and decorate with pink coconut. To tint the coconut sprinkle it on a sheet of white paper; dilute a tiny bit of red vegetable coloring in a small amount of water. Sprinkle the diluted coloring over the coconut and rub evenly through the shreds.

If your youngsters would like to have arrows to go with the cookie hearts cut the arrow shapes out of cardboard, flour them and use them as you would regular cutters, cutting the dough around the shape with a small sharp knife.

Eugene J. Marcotte Dies; Rites Friday

Eugene J. Marcotte, 72, 3905 Starr street, jeweler and watchmaker, died Wednesday afternoon at a local hospital.

Born in Ames, Kas., Mr. Marcotte lived at Concordia, Kas., until moving to Lincoln in 1917. He was a jewelry salesman for about 27 years in the western part of the country and was employed here as a watchmaker for 10 years. A member of the Methodist church, he also was a past master of the Lincoln Watchmaker's guild.

Surviving are his wife, Katherine; two sons, Duane and Charles, both of Lincoln; one daughter, Mrs. Don Strawn, Lincoln; one brother, Adelard, Allendale, Ill.; six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held Friday, 9 a. m., at Roper and Sons, Rev. Virgil Anderson officiating. Charles Putney will sing. Burial will be at Concordia, Kas.

Breeds Discussed By Kennel Club

Dr. C. T. Blunn of the University of Nebraska college of agriculture discussed scientific animal breeding at a meeting Wednesday night of the Cornhusker Kennel club at the Y.W.C.A.

The same principles of breeding apply to all classes of animals, he said.

But, he continued, dogs have a more genetic diversity than most domestic animals.

This is illustrated by the difference between the Mexican hairless dog and the St. Bernard, he asserted.

Dr. Blunn said the three systems of animal breeding are inbreeding, crossbreeding and selection. The club discussed plans for the circuit dog show which will be held March 16 at the 4-H building at the state fair grounds.

Gallagher Explains Civil Defense Bill

Hugh Gallagher, assistant director of the Council of State Governments, told the legislature Wednesday of the studies made by the council on problems of interest to all states. He promised that the report on education would be ready in a few days.

He explained the bill recommended by the council or establishment of a civil defense organization within the states. The bill has been introduced in the legislature by Senators Carmody and Wood.

The plan, he said, if it had been executed would have been of aid to the state in meeting the blizzard conditions. Although primarily for use in case of attack with atomic bombs or poison, immediate use in times of civilian distress is provided.

Further studies are being completed regarding grants-in-aid to states, he continued.

Gallagher spent a year in Greece with the mission headed by former Gov. Dwight Griswold and he spoke in high praise of the work done by various Nebraskans at that time.

9 Members Heard By Toastmaster Clubs

Speeches by members were heard Wednesday night at meetings of the Lincoln and Capital Toastmaster clubs at the Y.M.C.A. Speakers and topics for the Lincoln organization were Leonard Pocht, "Imagination," Den Hayenga, "Family Service Association—1948," Howard Kirley, "Take It Easy," and Dr. A. M. Paudel, "What Will Be Our Choice?"

Max Brown was toastmaster and Burl Richardson was topicmaster. Edward H. Little acted as general. For the Capital club, speakers and topics were Sequoyan Fox, "Do It Now," Eugene Winslow, "Better Soviet Relations," Allan Wright, "Do You Like Arachis (Peanut)?" and Edward Parmelee, "Foot War."

Toastmaster was Paul Benedict and Jesse Wright was the topicmaster. T. G. Kimball served as chief critic.

Need For Low Cost Housing Is Still Acute

Family Service Group Reports

Conditions in this community continue to reflect the national housing emergency, according to Benjamin C. Hayenga, general secretary of Lincoln Family Service association.

According to a report of the Family Service Association of America, the acute need for low-cost and low-rental housing is not being decreased. Construction of 800,000 units last year just about kept up with normal population growth but did not improve the situation, he said.

"It is impossible for us to give peace of mind to a father when we cannot suggest where he can find a roof for his children," Hayenga said. "There is only so much that can be done to straighten out the quarrels of a young married couple when their obvious need is to have a place of their own, away from parents and relatives."

Tension Product Of Shortage.

"Tension between husband and wife was the product of housing hardships noted most often in the national association's survey," Hayenga said. That thing is noted by the agency in Lincoln, he reported.

Most important housing conditions listed by the national survey were inadequate living space, doubling-up of ordinarily separate households, sub-standard quality of housing, and inability to procure permanent housing because of high building costs. The family service agencies, while refraining from claiming to be authorities on the matter, showed overwhelming support of more direct public aid for low cost housing in the survey.

While no statistics on the Lincoln housing situation are available immediately, the Council of Social Agencies announces that a housing committee of the family and children's council is now preparing a report on the situation.

Policy On Reclamation To Be Told

By Federal Official At State Meet Here

Formal announcement of federal government policy for future reclamation projects will be made by a high government official at the annual convention in Lincoln of the Nebraska Reclamation association, Mrs. Marcella Allen, secretary, said today.

Writing for the "Irrigation Farmer," Mrs. Allen said that William E. Warne, undersecretary of the department of the interior, will outline the policy, and has promised "to be very specific." He comes with the full approval of Secretary Krug, she said, adding that Nebraska has been chosen as a suitable place for the formal announcement of a future policy.

To Address Banquet. Warne will speak at the banquet Feb. 10. The convention will be held Feb. 10 and 11.

"It is no state secret that our public power policy just 'grewed, like Topsy,'" Mrs. Allen wrote. "In fact, the whole reclamation program has succeeded so far, only by keeping just ahead of the hounds."

"The axe of the so-called economy minded eastern vote has been swung as closely as possible, until very recent years. The compromise between irrigation, and the power to pay for it, and the 'economy' voters, has been pretty one-sided at times," she continued.

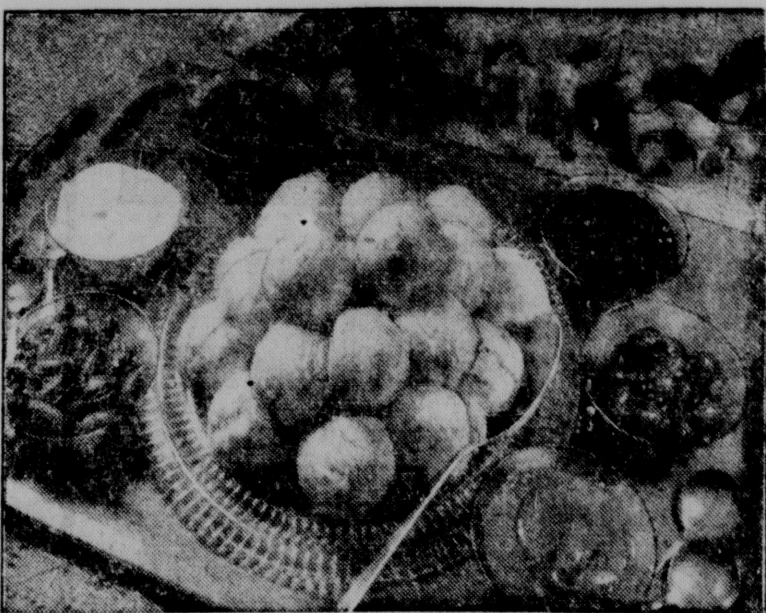

"With pressure from special utility interests on one hand, and general ignorance of the need for increasing food and power production on the other, western congressmen and reclamation officials have rushed in, piece at a time, and snatched appropriations from the fiery blast of the John Tabors and dozens of others of his convictions."

Batson Among Speakers.

Mrs. Allen said other speakers on the two-day program will be Gov. Val Peterson; Regional Director Avery Batson of the reclamation bureau; David S. Houston, recreation director for the Central Nebraska Tri-County Public Power and Irrigation district; Paul Strouse, engineer in charge of the Bostwick project; Dean W. V. Lambert of the University of Nebraska college of agriculture; and Harry Polk, president of the National Reclamation association.

There also will be discussion of present and proposed state legislation affecting reclamation projects.

Ice Cream Is Always Good

Ice cream is good alone or in combination with other foods. Did you ever try individual Baked Alaska? Cut loaf cake in slices and place on cutting board. At dessert time make a stiff meringue using four egg whites and 1/2 cup sugar. Cut hard frozen ice cream in slices to top each layer of cake. Cover the ice cream and cake slices generously and completely with meringue. Bake to just brown in a hot oven (400° F.). No they won't melt; the meringue acts as insulation, keeping the heat from the ice cream. Serve at once.

Or have you eaten a cream puff filled with pecan toffee or maple nut ice cream with a topping of frozen or fresh peaches; or how about a hot nut waffle topped with peppermint stick candy ice cream and thick fudge sauce? Then, too, there's hot gingerbread or mince pie a la mode. You'd want vanilla ice cream, of course.

Ice cream is good with many fruits, too. Try vanilla ice cream with canned kadota figs, or dress up applesauce with a spoonful of black walnuts, pecan toffee, or pecan crisp ice cream.

Here are some sauces for special sundaes. Serve them soon.

PINEAPPLE SAUCE
Yield: 1 1/2 cups
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup pineapple juice
3/4 cup crushed or sliced pineapple, cut fine
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Combine cornstarch, sugar, and salt in heavy pan. Slowly add pineapple juice, stirring until smoothly combined with dry ingredients. Cook until sauce is clear and thickened. Remove from heat. Add pineapple and lemon juice. This sauce may be kept in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

CARAMEL SAUCE

Yield: 3/4 cup
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Put half of the sugar in a heavy pan and heat until melted, stirring constantly. Add remaining sugar and boiling water slowly while stirring vigorously. Cook until quite syrupy. Add butter and salt, and cook until a very soft ball forms when a little of the syrup is dropped in cold water (225° F.). Remove from heat, add vanilla. Serve hot or cold. This sauce may be kept in a covered jar in the refrigerator. Reheat over hot water before serving, if desired.

A. D. Eigenbrodt, 83, Dies; Ex-Rail Worker

Archer D. Eigenbrodt, 83, 217 South Twenty-eighth street, a retired Burlington employe, died in Lincoln Wednesday.

Born Jan. 10, 1861, at Ellington, N. Y., Mr. Eigenbrodt had been a Lincoln 45 years.

He was a member of Lincoln lodge No. 19, A.F. & A.M., and the Electa chapter, O.E.S.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ed Albrecht and Mrs. H. R. Knapp, both of Lincoln; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

GUILTY SECRET

An elderly lady, who was always complaining about her ailments, would never come down to breakfast—stating that she could stomach nothing more than a cup of hot water.

One morning, her daughter entered the old lady's room without knocking and discovered her mother polishing off a bowl of hot Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal.

The old lady sighed. "You might as well know," she said. "The maid's been bringing this cereal up the back stairs for years."

"How else," she went on, "do you suppose I've kept up the energy to complain so much?"

Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal tastes delicious, cooks in 3 1/2 minutes. Get a box today.

VA Urges Vets To Convert Or Renew Policies

The Veterans Administration today urged veterans to consider plans for renewing or converting their GI term insurance policies.

According to Ashley Westmoreland, Lincoln regional office manager, the National Service Life Insurance which ex-servicemen acquired while in the armed forces is limited to an eight-year term. Those who entered service in the months prior to and just after the Pearl Harbor attack will reach the expiration date of their insurance in 1949 and early 1950.

Westmoreland said these veterans, who will receive notices from VA prior to the date of expiration, may renew their term policies for an additional five-year period upon expiration of the present term. Premium payments for the renewed term insurance will be at a slightly higher rate to compensate for the veteran's increased age.

In addition to the option of renewing the term insurance, the VA official said, veterans will have a choice of six different forms of permanent GI insurance to which their term policies can be converted.

Expiration of GI term insurance will accelerate in the next few years in direct ratio he said, to the number of enlistees and draftees who entered the armed forces during the war years.

Term insurance issued on or after Jan. 1, 1948, is not subject to renewal under present laws.

Beach Pays Penalty

COLUMBUS, O.—(INS)—Harold A. Beach, Jr., 22-year-old confessed murderer of an 8-year-old Cleveland girl, clutched a crucifix and mumbled "Our Father" as he died in the Ohio penitentiary electric chair last night.

The youth, who readily admitted the crime when apprehended in Baltimore, walked grimly through the death-door at 8:03. Seven minutes later he was dead.

McCook Woman Awarded $8,000 In Damage Suit

McCOOK, Neb.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Julow, McCook, was awarded $8,000 damages by a District court jury here last night as compensation for injuries received in a fight at a cabin camp here last July.

Defendants in the case were Bradley Dolan, Earl Planck and Seymour Whitt, all of McCook, and Don Cafferty of Indianola.

In a similar suit, Orville E. Burton, manager of the camp, is suing the same four men.

Planck was convicted last fall and the other three pleaded guilty to criminal charges of assault. Sentencing has been deferred pending a ruling from the Supreme court on Planck's case.

Two Car Insurance Bills Killed

By Committee: Seen As Rate Threat

Two bills, making an insurance company co-defendant in an auto-accident case and permitting questioning a defendant to see if he has insurance, were killed by the legislature's judiciary committee Wednesday.

Both measures got the axe after a lengthy hearing, in which they were described by one side as "ridiculous" and "unfair" and by the other as "fair and just."

Supporters of LB 36 and 82 pointed out that insurance companies now conduct the defense of one of their clients and can afford a host of expensive, first-rate lawyers while the average plaintiff does not have such great resources.

Adams Hits Rules.

"Juries should know," declared Edward T. Hayes, Omaha, "who are the actual interested parties in the suit."

Sen. John Adams, Sr., of Omaha, who was an introducer of both bills, charged that the rules protecting insurance companies have been carried too far.

Other backers of the bills were Frederick J. Patz, Ralph H. Gillan, and John E. Dean, Lincoln attorney, and Sen. Charles Wilson of Norfolk.

Main contention of opponents of the bills was that juries would be influenced by knowing that the defendant has insurance, and would award larger damages.

Rate Increase Predicted.

As a result, they claimed, insurance rates would increase.

A Nebraska Supreme court decision of 1936, which forbade making insurance an issue because of its influence on the jury, was read by G. L. Delacy, Omaha attorney. He complained that the bill would give a plaintiff's lawyers an unfair advantage.

Bernard Stone, state director of insurance, who said he was a lawyer in the 1936 case, told the committee that he has found bigger judgments and resultant higher rates where the fact of insurance is known to a jury.

"I have no doubt," he stated, "that insurance rates will go up if these laws pass."

Two Measures Forwarded.

Doctors of the state, and all professional men, would also be affected by the bills, Dr. R. W. Fouts of Omaha told the group. He explained that juries would give larger damages in malpractice and similar cases.

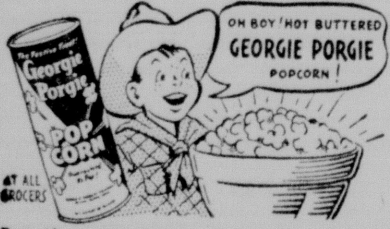

Under a bill which got committee approval, it would be lawful to sell tobacco to persons 18 years old or more.

Another measure sent to general file makes it illegal for anyone to detain or conceal a child under 18, instead of 16 as the law now stands.

LB 127, to harmonize the law on inventories filed by administrators of estates, was laid over for re-drafting.

Only The Skies Are Dull

THE DAY IS A BIT DRAB—on the outside—but its dullness is not reflected in the activity about town — nothing hectic, mind you, but just a nice steady pace of informal but interesting events—

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARIES are somewhat in the foreground today—One of the celebrants is Mrs. Norman Carlson who was the honoree at a luncheon today for which Mrs. Ernest Walt was hostess at her home. The guest list of eight included the members of a birthday club who spent the after luncheon hours with bridge—

AND THIS EVENING, complimenting Mrs. Carlson, there will be a family dinner at the University club.

THEN THERE IS young John Hilton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Hilton. John had his sixth birthday about a week ago, but the weather man frowned severely on the idea of a party. However John's grandmother, Mrs. David Hilton, is hostessing the family at dinner this evening at the University club, with her small grandson as the center of attention. This is John's birthday party.

MENTION OF THE HILTONS reminds us that Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Hilton and their family have moved into their new home at 2418 Calumet Court.

BIRTHDAYS, HOWEVER, in no way monopolize the conversation today — There are some guests in town—some travelers—and a party or so.

Mrs. W. W. Putney, for instance, has invited a group of guests in for tea at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon, as a courtesy to her sister, Mrs. A. L. Hyde who, with Mr. Hyde, will leave on February 15, to return to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyde have been spending a several weeks vacation in Lincoln, visiting Mrs. Hyde's mother, Mrs. N. Z. Snell, and her sisters.

APPROPOS OF GUESTS—there is Mrs. Carl Weaver of Scottsbluff who leaves this evening to return to her home after a Tuesday-to-Thursday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lawrence.

OFF TO CHICAGO this evening to attend the meeting of the dental association will be Dr. Ralph Ludwick, Dr. Ralph Ludwick, Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Bumstead.

AND SPEAKING OF travelers — Mrs. D. D. Sanderson and Mrs.

Florence Greener left by plane Thursday morning for Havana —During their two months trekking they will visit Jamaica and Haiti, and will be joined some time in March by Dr. Sanderson who will meet them in Miami.

HAD A LITTLE NEWS OF the Hansens—Dr. and Mrs. Frederick (Janet Caldwell) today—We hear that Dr. and Mrs. Hansen are currently in New York City where Dr. Hansen is taking some special work in his branch of medicine.

AROUND THE TOWN

Parents and faculty members of Lincoln public schools who would like to learn square dancing are cordially invited to attend the square-dance class Friday evening, sponsored by the P.T.A. Mothersingers. Miss Eunice Preston will be instructor for the class to be held from 7:30 o'clock to 10:30 o'clock at Elliott school.

The Four Ace Pinocle club members will be luncheon guests of Mrs. Louisa Milow on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Milow, 1426 South Thirteenth street, and the afternoon hours will be spent informally.

Nebraska Wesleyan university Willard sorority members will present a special program on Friday at the meeting of the University Place W. C. T. U., which will be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Rising, 2702 North Forty-ninth street. This will be the Frances Willard program and will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

A "hung" jury resulted, Wednesday night, in the judge's verdict of a mistrial at the Circuit Community Theater's production of "The Night of January 16th." Foreman of the non-co-operative jury on Wednesday evening was Jack Devore, who was ably assisted by Mrs. Theobald, John Wayne, Mrs. Robert Black, Chauncey Barney, Bernard Gradwohl, Robert Bauer, Mrs. Jean Hansen, Earl Johnson, Earl Carter, the Rev. John Douglas Clyde, and David Makepeace.

Disqualified as a juror was Wheaton Battey who declared he knew the accused personally.

Meeting at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the Capitol hotel were the cabinet members of the Lincoln Camp Fire leaders association. Mrs. David Makepeace presided at the meeting, the first of the current season, and committee assignments were made.

Mrs. B. F. Eddy, a newly elected member of the Lennox club, was hostess to the group Wednesday afternoon at her home. Following the business meeting, games were played and winning high scores were Mrs. G. M. Clark, Miss Edith Killham, Mrs. E. E. Kennedy, Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. W. H. Grant and Mrs. H. E. Brady.

January Gasoline Tax Shows Drop

Regular gas tax money distribution to counties for January dropped to $357,538 as compared with $375,445 for the previous month, according to a report by State Treasurer Ed Gillette. Schroeder rural mail route graveling funds for the same month dropped to $238,358 as compared with $250,303 the previous month.

Regular gas tax distribution to Lancaster county for the month amounted to $21,266. Rural and star mail route funds totaled $14,177. Iowa Student Moves Bed Outside For Fresh Air—Just One Night

IOWA CITY, Ia.—(AP)—Eugene Coon, University of Iowa student, made his bed and lay in it—outdoors in 15-below zero weather.

Coon's dormitory roommates, of the keep-the-wind-out-of-tight school, suggested that Coon, who likes fresh air while he sleeps, move outdoors.

Out Coon went with his bed, six blankets and a sweatshirt. Later he added four pair of socks, another sweater, a pair of trousers and more blankets.

After his outdoor snooze one night, Coon said he probably wouldn't try it again.

Life Service Clinics For Youth Slated

Westleyan Program To Be Held Feb. 12-13

Plans for two life service clinics designed for Nebraska Methodist youth interested in Christian service-centered vocations, were announced today by Rev. Ray F. Magnuson, secretary of the Commission on Christian vocations of the Nebraska Annual Conference of the Methodist church.

Rev. Mr. Magnuson said the first will be held in Ogallala this week-end, February 5 and 6, and the second on the Nebraska Wesleyan university campus in Lincoln, February 12 and 13.

"Similar programs have been set up for each clinic," Rev. Mr. Magnuson revealed, "with outstanding leadership to handle discussions in each of the three service areas—ministry, missions and service vocations."

Ogallala Leaders.

At the Ogallala clinic, Dr. James S. Chubb, pastor of the Methodist church at Grand Island and former associate secretary of the Methodist general board of evangelism, will lead the area on ministry.

Mrs. Max Gentry, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service for the Nebraska conference who with her husband, Dr. Max Gentry of Gering, spent several years in China, will lead the area on missions.

Dr. E. R. Bartlett, president of Iliff School of Theology, Denver, will lead discussions on service vocations.

Rev. L. Edward Mattingly, associate professor of Religion and Director of Religious Life at Nebraska Wesleyan university, will have charge of the Saturday worship services opening the two-day clinic, and will deliver the main address at a Saturday night dinner meeting. Dr. Bartlett will deliver the Sunday morning worship sermon.

Bill Permitting Oleo Use In State Institutions Killed

The legislative committee on agriculture after hearings Wednesday killed LB 221, which would have repealed the state law requiring the use of butter at institutions under the direction of the state board of control.

W. H. Diers, chairman of the board of control, told the committee that by using oleomargarine instead of butter in the institutions the estimated savings to the state would be $67,477 a year.

Diers said in 1946, the last year for which complete figures were available, the board of control bought 81,170,000 pounds of butter for state institutions at an average price of 7 1/2 cents a pound. Total cost of the butter amounted to $116,456.

Law Termined Vicious.

He stated that during the same period, at an average price of only 30 cents a pound, the same amount of oleomargarine would have cost the state only $48,478. Under the present law, butter substitutes can be served only at the state penitentiary and the women's reformatory.

Sen. Don Hanna, Valentine, introduced the bill, told the committee that the law is "discriminatory and vicious and has no place on our statutes."

He said both butter and oleo are recognized as foods and tests have proven that there is very little difference in the nutritive value of the two.

"Saving Not Issue."

The bill was vigorously opposed at the hearing by O. R. Rasmussen, Lincoln, representing the American Dairy Association of Nebraska, the Nebraska Co-Operative Creameries, and the Lincoln Milk Producers association; and Charles Marshall, president of the Nebraska Farm Bureau.

In his argument against the bill, Rasmussen said "The $67,000 saving possible to the state by buying oleo is not a fundamental issue."

"The repeal of this law would be tantamount to telling farmers that their product should not be used in a state institution," he eats oleomargarine to pay the taxes so that these institutions can serve butter?" Senator Hanna asked. "It would be just as sensible to ban prunes not grown in Nebraska."

Sent to general file by the committee was LB 187, a bill eliminating the Niobrara river area between Holt and Rock counties and the Platte river area in Garden county as game refuges.

The committee on miscellaneous appropriations deferred action

Wednesday on LB 197, 249, 263 and 286, all of which seek to increase salaries of state officials.

Sen. Norris Schneider, chairman of the committee, said many similar bills have been introduced and will be considered at the same time at a later date.
